Hickory Christian ACADEMY

Honor Code

As a member of the logic or rhetoric stage at Hickory Christian Academy, I, along with my parents, realize that I have a responsibility to act in a manner that will bring honor to our Lord and our school. I also realize that a Christ-like character as described in this Honor Code is one of the most important elements of being a successful student at Hickory Christian Academy. The strength of my character is revealed when no one is watching me and when I am the only one who really knows what I have done or not done. It is then that my character is put to the greatest test. I also realize that God knows my heart and my every action for I cannot escape His omniscience.

With these thoughts in mind, I pledge that:

1. I will do my best to exemplify a Christ-like character at all times.
2. I will treat others with respect both physically and verbally.
3. I will tell the truth at all times.
4. I will not cheat or be involved in giving or receiving unauthorized aid on any assigned work.
5. I will not plagiarize another's work.
6. I will do my best to adhere to all school policies.
7. I will respect the property and grounds of the school and of others and will treat them with care.
8. I will do my best in all my endeavors, whether curricular or extracurricular.

I understand that I am a representative of our Lord and Hickory Christian Academy twenty-four hours a day on campus and off, and that my actions reflect upon our Lord and our school either positively or negatively. Accordingly, I have a responsibility to avoid poor behavior—including smoking, drinking, drug use, stealing, making fun of others, and the like.

Finally I realize that I am not perfect and that my parents and my teachers are behind me to encourage me and help me live up to this Honor Code. Because this Honor Code is so important to my development as a Christian, I wholeheartedly pledge to follow it so that Hickory Christian Academy can be the best possible place for me, my fellow students, and those students who follow after me.
